

Local 83 Orientation

Orientation meetings are information sessions which take place to give people a better understanding of what the Carpenters Union is and how it works. There is no cost to attend and it is a source of valuable information for those trying to decide if the Union is the best choice for them. Some of the people speaking and the topics discussed include:

Business Representatives Vernon Rowe and Shane Butler

- The role of the Business Representative;
- A brief history on the Carpenters Union;
- What to expect when you go to work on a Union jobsite;
- Benefits – Medical, Dental, Pension;
- Any questions presented.

Training Coordinator Ron MacDonald

- Safety and skills training that are offered and what the process is to receive training.

Organizer Cathy Pike

- Discussion on Industry & Market Share.

If you are considering joining the Union, you may wish to bring a resumé, Record of Employment or pay stubs in order to help us determine your level of experience in the trade. Also, you may wish to bring your information for any dependents (spouse, children) you may have in order to fill out a card to register with our benefit plan.

Any person looking to join the Carpenters Union, Local 83, or members who wish to sit in on this information session, please call the front desk at 454-5100 ext 0 to be put on our Orientation list. The next Orientation will take place at our Union Hall, 1000 Sackville Drive, Lower Sackville on:

September 29, 2011, 8:30 am – 12 noon

We look forward to seeing you there.
